

HOUSE RESOLUTION 5002
By Purcell

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of Angie Greene.

WHEREAS, it was with great sadness and a profound sense of loss that the members of this House learned of the untimely and tragic death of Angie Greene; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Greene had previously served with distinction as Governor Ned McWherter's special assistant for appointments to state boards and commissions; and

WHEREAS, Governor McWherter described Ms. Greene as "a beautiful, wonderful young lady" and stated that he felt as if she were one of his own children; and

WHEREAS, after serving astutely as legislative liaison for the governor, Ms. Greene's estimable career in state government took her to the Department of Environment and Conservation where she worked closely with Commissioner J.W. Luna who praised Angie's compassion and remarkable sense of responsibility toward her fellow human beings; and

WHEREAS, Angie Greene was a valuable employee of the Department of Environment and Conservation at the time of her demise; and

WHEREAS, she was the very epitome of the dedicated public servant, performing many hours of hard work not for personal gratification nor public acclaim, but rather the satisfaction of a job well done and knowing that her efforts made Tennessee a better place to live; and

WHEREAS, Angie Greene was a "vibrant, intense person" who lived life to its fullest and accomplished a great deal during her 31 years on this Earth; and

WHEREAS, she was an outgoing person with a bright personality who was admired and respected by her peers and superiors alike; to know Angie was to love her; and

WHEREAS, a native of McMinnville, Ms. Greene evidenced her robust faith as a member of Crieve Hall Church of Christ; and

WHEREAS, Angie Greene “lived her life in godliness, in dignity and honor” and it is most appropriate that we should pause to honor her life of purpose and commitment to others; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, That we honor the memory of Angie Greene, remembering fondly “the grace and beauty of her Christian life and positive influence” and her indelible legacy of proficient public service.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we express our sympathy and extend our condolences to Ms. Greene’s family and many friends.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
